CLOUD BEGINS PRISON TERM

Convicted Slayer of Luther C. Sharp Advised not to Make Statement
by His Attorneys

PENDING ACTION ON MOTION

Arguments For New Trial Will Be Heard Next Week—Other Court
Business Transacted

Cecil Cloud, convicted of murder,
today began his life time sentence in Michigan City, and was taken this morning early by Sheriff Hunt to Indianapolis, where a train for the prison was obtained at 7:40.

Although there is a motion pending for a new trial, the attorneys for the defense this morning were granted an extension of time for the arguments, in order that they could look up further citations in law.
The arguments for the new trial will be heard next week.

The defendant made no statement
before he left, and it is understood that he was advised by his attorneys not to make any statement, until the court had ruled on the motion for a new trial. In event a new trial is given, he will be returned here.

Sheriff Hunt was accompanied to Michigan City by Ralph Waggoner,
a deputy. Forest Huntington, an operative for the Pinkerton detective agency, also accompanied them as far as Indianapolis.

There were several minor matters
scheduled for a hearing in the circuit court today, and business on divorce cases and similar actions
was expected to occupy the attention of the court.

The evidence in the case of Fanny
H. Ayres against Thomas C. Cauley,
a suit on an account, was heard Friday in the court and taken under advisement by Judge Sparks. The evidence of the plaintiff was presented last week, and the further evidence of the defendant was heard yesterday.

The evidence also was heard in the divorce suit of Samuel L. Trabue against Marguerite Trabue, in which the court granted the plaintiff a divorce.

Judge John Craig of Greensburg,
special judge in the case of Ollie Fry against the estate of Sanford Hatchman, was here and overruled
the motion of the defense for a new trial. The case, which was a demand on a claim, was heard several weeks ago by a jury and the plaintiff was awarded $1,250 judgment.

After the special judge overruled
the motion of the defendant for a new trial, the defense then filed a motion to appeal the case to the Indiana Appellate court, and the motion was granted.

In the suit of Julius C. King against Arthur Lemon, a complaint
to eject the defendant from a tenant
house, the defendant was granted

TO PRY FURTHER INTO $200,000 LIQUOR DEAL

Daugherty Investigating Committee
Has Two Witnesses to Give More Evidence on Subject

WILL A. ORR IS RECALLED

Washington, March 22—Another chapter in the "$200,000 liquor deal" disclosed by the Daugherty investigating committee was ready for opening today.

Senator Wheeler, Montana, chief
"prosecutor" on the committee, said
he has at least two witnesses on hand to give further testimony on this subject. These witnesses are Colonel Thomas B. Felder, New York attorney and close personal friend of Daugherty. Felder represented John Goroni, president of the Apa Drug company, who related the story of the "six-way split" on the liquor deals.

Will A. Orr, once secretary to ex-Governor Whitman of New York, alleged fixer in the deal, who shared $6.50 on each case of liquor withdrawn from warehouses, according to Goroni. Orr is being recalled to amplify his testimony regarding giving money in liquor deals to Howard Mannington, Daugherty's friend who lived at the "Little Green house on K street."

WILLIAM H. WOLCOTT Dies

Funeral Services For Former Rush-
ville Man Here Sunday

William Henry Wolcott, about sixty years of age, formerly a resident of this city, died at his home in Indianapolis Friday afternoon at three o'clock, and the body will be sent here for funeral services, which will be held at East Hill chapel Sunday afternoon under the auspices of Phoenix lodge No. 62, F. & A. Masons, of which he was a member.

Mr. Wolcott was a traveling salesman for many years. He was subject to diabetes, which disease, it is presumed by friends here, caused his death. Mr. Wolcott was born in Connecticut. He had no living relatives, so far as anyone here knew.

39 STUDENTS IN LATIN CONTEST

Eight of Eleven County High Schools
Entered in Event Held at Graham
High School Today

MARY WILLIAMS IN CHARGE

Competition in Four Divisions and Winners in Each Will Be Named
For District Contest

Thirty-nine high school students
of Rush county were entered in the county Latin contest, which was being held today at the Graham high school building in this city, and these entrants represented the four divisions of Latin which are taught in the high school. Miss Mary Williams, Latin and English instructor
in the Manilla high school, was in charge of the contest.

Eight of the eleven county high schools were entered and those participating in the contest were the schools of Ging, Raleigh, Glenwood,
New Salem, Manilla, Rushville, Arlington and Milroy.

The two pupils receiving the highest grade in each division of this contest, will represent Rush County in the district contest April 5. The district contest will also be held in this city on that date.

Each one who receives the highest grade in each division of the district
contest will represent the Sixth District in the state contest at Bloomington April 25.

The list of schools in this county,
who were participating for honors
today, and the division that they represented, are as follows:

Ging: division one, Adrian Eckert
and Mildred McMillan; division two, Mildred Billings and Naomi Nash;
division three, Ruth Billings.

New Salem: division one, Gail Browning and Evelyn Cook; division
two, Mary Cloud and Thelma Har-
bert; division three, Mildred Wilson and Dorothy Wilson.

Raleigh: division one, Gayle Heath
and Thelma Banks; division two, Agnes Neal; division four, Helen
May Carson and Gertrude Ertel.

Manilla: division one, Helen Phares and Opal Stout; division two,
Elsie Weingarth and Beryl Wicker.

Rushville: division one, Alta Foul
and Laura McMakin; division two, Betty Waggoner and Ruth Allen; division three, Elizabeth Manning and Mary Maud Reed.

Milroy: division one, Russell Perrigo and Kathryn Borem; division
two, Mary Shaw and Helen Overleese, division three, Mildred Booth and Pauline Patton.

Glenwood: division one, Marie McCrory and Ernest Whicker; division
two, Helen Freeland and John Jean.

Arlington: division one, Florence
Houston and Mary Bird; division two,
Naomi Wall.

BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES

The following services will be held at the First Baptist church Sunday:
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.; morning worship at 10:30 a. m.; B. Y. P. U.
6:15 p. m.; Evening worship 7:00 p.
m. The pastor, Rev. R. W. Sage expects to fill the pulpit both morning and evening. The Rev. Sage has been ill, but is improving.

PLEASANT RIDGE SERVICE

There will be special services of the Pleasant Ridge M. E. church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which time, Miss Mary Logan, of this city, a returned missionary from India, will give a lecture. All the members of the church and community are urged to attend this meeting.

GOOD MORNING, JUDGE!!

EIGHTY FORMER RUSHVILLE PEOPLE AT REUNION DINNER IN LOS ANGELES

Eighty former Rushville people
got together and held a pitch-in dinner and reunion in Los Angeles last Saturday night, and after giving
three whooping cheers for Rushville,
they decided to make it an annual event.

The dinner was held at the Huntley
apartments, and following the repast, the ex-Hoosiers spent the remainder of the evening dancing and visiting with each other.

Practically all of those at the dinner lived in Rushville at one time or another, with the exception of a few who happened to be visiting in Los Angeles and were invited to the dinner.

Here is the guest list as received by the Daily Republican today:

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Betker, John
K. Tompkins (a visitor), Mr. and Mrs. Will Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Gibson (Mrs. Gibson was former

Miss Mary Louise Bliss), Mrs. Bowman (Mrs. Bliss' mother), Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mauzy, Helen Mauzy, Milton Mauzy, Mrs. Milton Churchill (Mrs.
Mauzy's mother), Mrs. M. C. Burt and Miss Louise Burt, now of New York.

CALLED "MOTHER" OF Y. W. BUILDING

New Structure in Binghampton, N.
Y. Monument to Work of Florence
Sims, Former Local Girl

DIED IN JANUARY, 1923

Completion of Building is Realization of Plan Fostered and Aided by Miss Sims

A testimonial to the esteem in which Miss Florence Simms was held by those who were acquainted with her is contained in an announcement received here to the effect that the new Y. W. C. A. building recently dedicated in Binghampton, New York
is a monument to her work.

Miss Simms, who was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Simms of Mattoon, Illinois, and left here several years ago with her parents, died
at her home in Mattoon in January of last year, while visiting her parents, her untimely death having been due, it was said at the time, to her undermining her health in Y. W. C. A. work.

Miss Simms had achieved a reputation in United States and in Europe through her capable work in the interest of the Y. W. C. A. and the tribute to her in the Binghampton paper was in connection with that branch of work.

A new Y. W. C. A. building was recently completed and inspected in that city and one of the features that attracted the interest of the public present was a clubroom for industrial girls. The Binghampton paper after describing the room goes on to say: "Also in this room is a picture of 'The Madonna' the gift of Miss organizations, will be interested in the announcement that the affairs of the company, which is now in re-ceivership, will be laid before the Marion county grand jury in the near future, according to present indications.

WEEK IS DEVOTED TO TRIAL AND NO JURY

Some Prospect of Finally Selecting 12 Men to Try Gov. McCray Today, But it Was Remote

FIVE DEFINITELY PASSED

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22—As the first week of the trial of Governor McCray drew to an end today,
attorneys had been unable to select a jury which will try the governor
on charges of larceny and embezzlement.

There was some prospect of finally selecting the 12 men who will try the governor before adjournment today
but so many snags have been hit
in the progress of picking the jury-
men that no predictions were forthcoming from official circles just when the jury would be completed.

Five men who have been passed twice by both the defense and the prosecution will be members of the jury. Four of the remaining men have been approved by the state
once.

TEACHERS IN INSTITUTE

Regular Monthly Meeting is Held in Court House Today

The regular monthly Teacher's institute was being held today in the court house, and the instructors that have had charge of the work all year
were here today for their classes.

The institute today will be followed by one more session, this time next month, as by that time most of the rural schools will be ready to close for the summer.

The regular course of study was followed today with teachers being divided into their classes for instruction. The general assemblage of teachers was to be addressed at one o'clock this afternoon by the Rev. L.
E. Brown.

LENTEN SERVICES TO BEGIN SUNDAY

Gerald E. Bonney of Winona Lake, Gospel Song Leader, to Assist at First Presbyterian Church

AT THIS CHURCH LAST YEAR

The Rev. Gibson Wilson, Pastor, Appeals to People to Enter Into Spirit of Easter Season

A special two-weeks meeting begins at the First Presbyterian Church, Sunday morning with Gerald
E. Bonney of Winona Lake in charge of the music. Mr. Bonney is a well known Gospel song leader. He was with this church last Easter and made a great many friends, and all wanted him to return.

The meetings will continue every night except Saturday night. All persons who would like to help in these services by being members of the chorus choir are invited to meet Mr.
Bonney at the church Sunday afternoon for first rehearsal.

These pre-Easter meetings are a part of the Lenten program of the church. The Easter communion this year will be held April 6. There will

GERALD E. BONNEY

be an all day Easter program on April 20.

"Every person in Rush county can not do a better thing than to enter into the spirit of this Easter season
by reading a few verses of the Bible
every day and spending a few moments in prayerful meditation, said
the Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor, today.

"Many thousands of men throughout the country are observing the season in this manner. This in itself will have much to do in overcoming the wave of crime and wrong-doing which is bringing sorrow to so many homes in Rushville at this time.

"No people or city can depart from God into the ways of sin without reaping great sorrow and suffering.
Let us get back to the old paths and old customs of family prayers and family worship in the house of God.
This Easter season is a good time
to begin when everybody is thinking about what has been done by heaven
for the salvation of man."

The Rev. Mr. Wilson gives the people of Rushville a hearty invitation to attend these meetings at the First Presbyterian church, beginning Sunday morning.

NEW NAMES ARE MENTIONED DAILY

Constantly Being Added to List of Those Who Are Considered For Federal Judgeship

SPARKS' FRIENDS AT WORK

Admirers of Rushville Jurist Elsewhere in State Urge He be Recommended For Appointment

New names are being mentioned every day for the appointment as judge of the United States district court in Indianapolis, providing Judge A. B. Anderson is promoted to the federal circuit court of appeals, but inasmuch as Senator James E. Watson is supposed to have charge of the federal patronage in Indiana, friends of Judge Will M. Sparks are banking on the Indiana senator to stand by the Rushville jurist and insist on his appointment.

Not alone Rushville and Rush county friends of Judge Sparks, but admirers of his throughout the state
have written and telegraphed Senator Watson, urging him to recommend the Rushville man for appointment,
knowing him to be a fearless, capable and conscientious judge.

Warm advocates of Judge Sparks
have been keeping the mails and wires hot for the past few days insisting that his name be presented to President Coolidge for the appointment, not because he happens to live in the same place as Senator Watson
but because he is the best man suggested to fill Judge Anderson's
shoes.

In case Judge Anderson should be promoted and Judge Sparks named in his place, the vacancy on the Rush circuit bench would be filled by the governor until the next election, when
a judge would be elected.

Many political considerations are entering into the discussion, and it is hinted in Washington dispatches
and Indianapolis newspapers that Harry S. New, postmaster general, will insist on having something to say about the man who is recommended to the president for appointment.

Republican friends of Senator
Watson here know that if the postmaster general has anything to do with recommending the man who succeeds Judge Anderson, it will be no friend of Indiana's senior senator. For that reason they are anxious for Senator Watson to stick to his guns and insist on his right
to control the federal patronage in Indiana.

Many were recalling today the circumstances attending the appointment of Albert Anderson more than a score of years ago. Albert J. Beveridge was then United States senator and when there was a vacancy

ONLY TEN NEW CASES OF SMALLPOX IN CITY

Dr. E. I. Wooden Says Epidemic Can Be Stamped Out in Ten Days if People do as They Should

13 PATIENTS IN THE CITY

The smallpox situation in Rushville has not grown worse as rapidly within the past week, as reports have been circulated, and according to Dr. E. I. Wooden, city health officer, the local epidemic could be stamped out within the next ten days if the people would make the necessary efforts.

Contrary to the wild reports of the past few days, there have been only ten cases reported since last Saturday. These cases are widely scattered throughout the city, and effect all classes of people. These ten cases do not include the first three that were reported.

Dr. Wooden says that he is of the opinion that the disease could be stamped out in ten days, if those who are not vaccinated, would do
so at once, and if people would refrain from congregating in crowds.

The situation at New Salem has practically been cleaned up, as only one case from that vicinity has been reported during the past ten days,
indicating that the epidemic has passed there.

MAJORITY OF GRAVEL AND STONE ROADS ARE IN GOOD CONDITION

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22—The road construction season is open on Indiana state highways, and while actual pavement laying will likely not start for a few days, contractors are now engaged in preliminary work necessitating blocking off some sections and the establishment of new detours, some of which will be in force many weeks because of the major size contracts.

In the highway commission's traffic bulletin showing condition of state roads for the week of March 23-29, John D. Williams, director, today called attention that Indianapolis and Shelbyville traffic is using the Boggsstown road.

Leaving Shelbyville traffic should take the Boggsstown road by turning west at the north end of Harrison street bridge. Proceed via Red Mills and enter Indianapolis in Shelby street. More than 60 signs plainly mark this route which will be in use the greater part of the spring and early summer to permit paving No. 6 between New Bethel and Shelbyville.

Field reports show some gravel and stone roads soft in places, but the surface of the majority of mileage of this type in the system is in good condition, Williams says.

No. 1—Open from Indianapolis to a mile south of Westfield. There follow marked detour to east and north to intersection of Sheridan-Noblesville road. Detour is soft through traffic north and northwest should leave No. 1 a mile this side Westfield and take No. 33 west to No. 15, thence on 15 to 29 and back east to No. 1. Traffic northeast out of Indianapolis should not use No. 1 but take the Allisonville road to Noblesville, thence on 33 to 37. Detour between Underwood and Vienna impassable in wet weather. At such times detour via Fredericksburg, Salem, Brownstown and Seymour.

No. 3—One-way traffic only over bridge at Putnamville. Narrow grade at Glenn 3 miles east of Terre Haute.

No. 4—If thawing road is impassable between Sullivan and Linton New stone east of Seymour. Detour and avoid earth road east of Dugger. Safe between Bedford and Medora, and Hayden and North Vernon in wet weather.

No. 5—Detour via Mitchell and Paoli on 41 and 22 around construction between Loogootee and West Baden. Soft both directions near Wheatland and just east of Washington.

No. 6—Closed between New Bethel and Shelbyville account construction. Through traffic should take Boggsstown road between Indianapolis and Shelbyville, leaving Indianapolis on Shelby street. This route marked. North bound traffic from Indianapolis use No. 1 to Westfield, thence west on 33 to Lebanon to avoid construction on No. 3 in Marion county. Soft from Jolietville to No. 15.

No. 9—Suitable only for light traffic between Clay City and Brazil. Construction at 4 miles south of Brazil. East detour only fair. Construction between Jasonville and Clay City.

No. 10—Most of the soft spots have dried out excepting south of Farmersburg. Closed for grading and culvert construction between Ft. Branch and Princeton; detour marked. Surface poor north of Patoka and Shelbyville. North bound traffic from Evansville take old state road to new pavement on Princeton. Run-around at two bridges five miles south of Attica detour a mile east, thence a mile north, then west back to No. 10. Detour bad. Detour east at 6 miles north at Attica account bridge construction.

No. 12—Soft near Gosport and between Martinsville and Centerton. Narrow fill south of Spencer incomplete and hazardous.

No. 13—Construction for 10-miles south of Garrett and for 8 miles south Michigan line. Detour via Fremont. Drive carefully over new grade north of Newcastle. Soft between Montpelier and Fiat.

No. 15—Leave Indianapolis on No. 1 near Westfield, thence on 33 west to junction of 15. Closed at north edge of Laporte account construction.

No. 16—Construction between Booneville, Gentryville and Lincoln City. Heavy grading between St. Meinrad and Leavenworth.

No. 18—Earth road between Gentryville and Dale.

No. 21—Roadside detour at Randolph—Jay county line suited for light traffic only. Trucks detour west. Grading north of Richmond. Soft places between Winchester and Deerfield.

No. 22—Use No. 12 Indianapolis to Martinsville as 22 will be closed all summer for construction. Soft for 2 miles south of Martinsville. Heavy grading north of Bloomington and south of Paoli.

No. 24—Heavy grading between Palmyra and Salem. Detour via Fredericksburg in wet weather.

No. 25—Traffic from Michigan City to South Bend go either on 15 via Laporte and on 42, or by New Buffalo and Galein, Michigan, to avoid 2 miles of construction west of Rolling Prairie. Closed from intersection of 15 to New Carlisle, and from Angola to Lagrange county line. Through traffic follow marked detour.

No. 26—Detour around pavement construction just southeast of Columbus is impassable in wet weather. Take No. 1 to Seymour and cross on No. 4. Soft between Bloomington and Columbus.

No. 27—Bridge out 2 miles south of Goshen detour is poor and impassable in wet weather.

No. 28—Earth surface from Petersburg to Sandy Hook to be avoided in wet weather. Widening and surfacing from Petersburg to Washington. Soft from Newberry to Road No. 4.

No. 32—Bridge out north of Cloverdale; take run-around carefully.

No. 33—Bridge out 4 miles west of Covington; detour poor. Soft Jolietville to 15.

No. 34—Soft south of Brookville.

No. 40—Grading from Scottsburg to Blocher. Heavy construction from Haysville to French Lick. Dirt road between Cato and Ireland.

No. 47—Heavy construction between Newtonville and Troy.

No. 50—Breaks at 6 miles east, and one and 6 miles west of North Judson passable to light traffic only. Detour 3 miles west of Culver around bridge construction not suited for heavy traffic.

No. 53—Heavy construction south of Sunman. Rough between Batesville and Morris.

WEAK, RUN DOWN AFTER SICKNESS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Mrs. Dube Well and Strong

E. Hartford, Conn.—"After a severe sickness I was so weak that I could not do my housework, so my mother told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The first bottle helped me so much that I took six more bottles and felt fine. I have just given birth to a nice baby girl and am feeling strong and well. So different from the way I felt before. I am taking the Vegetable Compound right along while nursing. The baby seems to be in good health, and my friends say they see a big change for the better in me."

—Mrs. EUGENIE DUBE, 69 Woodbridge Street, East Hartford, Connecticut.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine to bring back health and strength. Many mothers have found this true, as did Mrs. Dube. Ask some of your neighbors and friends, for there are women everywhere who know by experience the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts, for a free copy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women."

Save The Scenery

A company that sells a nationally known and used product has announced that it intends to eliminate all of its advertising signs from the highways of the Pacific Coast states.

But why not go a step farther and eliminate them from all of the highways of all of the states?

There would not be any objection from anyone. The reverse would be true, because who enjoys billboard scenery?

Nothing is quite so disconcerting, or rough on the disposition, as to be viewing a beautiful piece of scenery while riding along a good highway, and suddenly have your view obscured by some unsightly billboard.

Now and then a billboard is a work of art, but the instances are so rare that few ever saw one that appealed to their sense of beauty.

The springtime is approaching, when rides in the country are enjoyed. Most people find enjoyment looking at the landscape as they travel, but when the highways are lined on either side with nondescript billboards advertising this or that product, the joy is all taken out of a motor trip.

Some states have ordered all billboards and signs of every character removed from state highways and will not permit any to be erected.

Why can't every state adopt this policy so that motorists may derive pleasure from an unobstructed view of nature's handiwork?

A Pipe Dream

What a wonderful thing it would be for the taxpayers if an honest-to-goodness business investigation, free from the hampering strings of politics, could be carried on in every department of the government. It is probable that such an investigation, if the investigators had the power to hire and fire as occasion demanded, would result in annual savings to the taxpayers far in excess of any savings that may be hoped for as a result of investigating private business which is subject to private competition and which must sink or swim on efficiency in management.

Reaction Sets In

The Presidential primaries that have been held thus far show practically a unanimous election of delegates to the convention instructed for President Coolidge. The fact should make the radicals in Washington stop a moment and ponder. Their wild attacks on honorable reputations through the circulation of unsubstantiated rumors is having the reaction that was sure to follow. In the end the men who have been instigating those assaults will be the sufferers and their intended victims will profit.

Expert Refunding

Some idea of the magnitude of the national treasury operations may be gained from the fact that on March 15th $650,000,000 in government obligations matured and had to be paid, together with $143,000,000 in interest. Every few months a similar financial operation must be performed. Fortunately we have a man at the head of the treasury department who knows how to handle the Government finances in a way that puts the least burden on the taxpayers and brings the least disturbance to business. Secretary Mellon has saved the people many millions of dollars by his expert refunding and retirement of the public debt.

Safety Sam's Sermonette

Probably you read accounts in th' papers last week about somebody in Michigan buyin' an ol' shack of a house an' findin' a hundred thousan' dollars in gold while tearin' it down. It musta give you an awful shock, like it did me, t' have it slipped to you that there is, or ever was, that much o' th' root of all evil in th' world an' not in th' clutches o' Messrs. Hank, Harry or John Dee.

Th' papers say th' stuff was hid anyhow thirty years ago. Of course in those days, with th' best hootch costin' less'n a dollar a drunk, an' no gas, oil or tires t' buy or radio batteries t' keep up, it looks like savin' up a hundred thousan' was a good bit easier job than it'd be t'day; in fact, you might say with a good bit o' truth that it aint done any more. N' besides, if anybody's got sense enough now days t' get hold of enough jack t' lay by a little, he's got sense enough t' know that as a good place t' hide money or valuables, th' savin's bank or safe deposit box has got th' space bet'ween th' lath an' weather boardin' beat forty ways from th' ace.

I admit we got a few things we keep hid around our shanty, like th' souvaneer silver spoon my wife bought b'fore she started supportin' me, but I b'lieve I'm safe in assertin' that when they tear down our house, they won't find anywhere near a hundred thou' that we've hid away!

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The conviction or vindication of Atty. Gen. Daugherty, as a result of the disclosures made before the special committee of the Senate, already has become a matter of comparative minor importance.

Whatever fate the investigation may bring to Daugherty and other individuals, these will be far outweighed in importance by the effects of the investigation on the viewpoint with which the public will approach political questions and candidates this fall.

The detailed and intimate testimony reciting how agents of the Department of Justice were used to spy upon senators and representatives, the efforts that were made to block the candidacies of "progressives" or others objectionable to those in power; the general under-cover sleuthing, gum-shoeing, spying methods used to obtain and maintain a hold on public affairs, will inevitably, it is believed here, result in a political reaction perhaps far more far-reaching than would now sound reasonable 't forecast.

THE effect of the disclosures in the Daugherty inquiry, which touch not only affairs in the Department of Justice but lead into the Treasury Department, the War Department, the Interior Department and other high places, will be cumulative.

They come on top of the revelations made in connection with the Fall-Sinclair-Doherty-Teapot Dome scandal. They indicate an interwoven, interlocking skein of things that cannot be uprooted by the discrediting or ousting of any few individuals. More and more it will be emphasized that behind the individuals directly involved and the situations revealed is a system which predetermines all the major moves in the game.

THAT the "independent" and "progressive" group in politics will seize on this situation to demand a "new deal" in government, through the medium of a new party, now seems assured.

The midnight searches of Senator La Follette's offices, the espionage conducted even in his own home, may do more to make him a presidential possibility than any efforts of his own could have done.

The efforts to "get something on" every senator or representative who was suspected of being progressive, will be painted as attempts at political blackmail. And in its present state of mind, the public will not be hard to convince that it was just that.

SIX WEEKS ago old-timers in Washington would have said that after the Fall-Teapot Dome scandal nothing could be developed in the Daugherty hearing that would give them a jolt.

Today they confess the blow of the oil-scandal revelations was mild beside the shock of the testimony to date in the Department of Justice investigation. For the latter involves not merely the loss of physical possessions, no matter how rich, but the actual bartering of justice and the trading of character. Whether with or without the knowledge of the attorney general is yet to be proven, but at least under the very roof of the Department of Justice!

A Mock Trial

Apropos the interest centered in circuit court this week on account of the trial of Cecil Cloud, high school students held a mock trial in the rear of Carons candy kitchen Friday evening and tried Tom Ryan for mashing an egg on the clothing of another person.

Franklin Miller acted as judge, Wilbur Wolter was the prosecuting attorney and Douglas Morris appeared as the legal representative of the defendant. A jury was impaneled and sat in judgment, but the verdict has not yet been made public.

A large gallery of high school boys and girls giggled and laughed through the whole performance, principally at the antics of "Prosecutor" Wolter, whose long and weird questions made the witnesses wrinkle their brows and whose objections to the questions of the defense were invariably overruled.

Them Days Are Gone Forever

"Them days are gone forever," sighed an old-time politician the other day in a crowd down town, when the forthcoming primary election was under discussion. He was bemoaning the fact that the good old days of the politician convention were almost extinct.

He recalled a judicial convention held here many years ago when Rush and Decatur counties comprised a judicial district. Claud Canbern was the choice of the republicans of Rush county for the nominee for judge and Dave Myers of Greensburg was the choice of the Decatur county republicans.

The convention was deadlocked for three days because each county had fifteen delegates and neither side would budge an inch. That ballotted until the delegates' tongues were hanging out and then they quit. The name of Mr. Cambren was put on the Rush county republican ticket as the candidate for judge and the name of Mr. Myers went on the Decatur county ticket.

The result was that Douglas Morris of this city, the Democratic nominee, was elected judge of the circuit.

GEN. ALLEN REPLACED

Dempsey to Fight Twice

HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 22—Unsettled conditions in New York, which several times threatened the life of the boxing game, have made it impractical for Tex Rickard to say too much about his plans for the coming summer.

Rickard has practically decided upon his program. He has the matches and the dates in mind and all he has to do is to remain silent until the time comes to talk.

The first big bout of the outdoor season will bring Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons together again in a return bout. Kearns has been showing unusual antipathy toward suggestions for this bout and Eddie Kane, Gibbons' manager, has been yelling that Dempsey didn't want the match.

There were reasons for Kearns, to be cool on the proposition, because it would not do to have the steam all let out early in the winter, when it would have to be all heated up again before summer had hardly started.

Dempsey will fight anyone, if he gets the money he wants, and Tex Rickard will meet his financial demands when Rickard sees money in it himself. There would be money for a promoter in another Dempsey-Gibbons fight, because Gibbons doesn't want the mint for fighting, and Dempsey will draw a house any time or any place he fights.

Rickard is not making any plans to give Georges Carpentier some work, despite reports from Paris to the contrary. Paris newspapers a few days ago carried a story that Carpentier had completed negotiations for three fights under Rickard's promotion and that he was sailing in a short time. Rickard said he didn't even know that Georges was still alive and that he hadn't had any negotiations with him for anything.

Dempsey, it was reported some time ago, might go to England this summer and take another smack at Carpentier in a bout to be staged in the Wembley stadium. It was suggested that the bout might draw enough to pay the two young financiers if it could be staged during the British empire exposition.

Charles B. Cochrane, prominent London theatrical promoter and an occasional fighter at boxing, said, recently when he was in New York, that he could see no opportunities in a big fight.

"I'm going to give them something for a couple of dollars," he said. "I'm going to get Tex Austin to pull off one of your western rodeos and stampedes."

Eleven High School and Two College Teams, Coaches and Sport Writers

Five Thousand People Gather to Pay Tribute to Championship Basketball Team

Martinsville, Ind., March 22—Martinsville last night honored her championship high school basketball team with a celebration the like of which has never been seen in the history of the sport in Indiana.

Eleven high school teams and two college teams, a dozen coaches and sport writers were present to join the Martinsville citizens and high school students in honoring the five men who walked off with the title a week ago.

The various teams were guests of the Home Lawn Mineral Springs Hotel at a banquet immediately after they arrived in Martinsville yesterday evening.

Later they were taken to the Elks' club for an informal get-together and then to the new $75,000 high school gymnasium where 5,000 citizens were gathered for the celebration.

One goal of the gym was decorated with the red and white of Martinsville High school and the other in the colors of the Frankfort high school, runners up for the title.

The music of a band was completely drowned out by the shouts of the crowd as each team entered. Although Martinsville had been celebrating day and night for a week, there was plenty of pep left for the final windup.

Each team marched across the gym floor to a section of reserved seats while the spectators shouted and stamped their feet in welcome.

The teams marched in in the following order: Paragon, Monrovia, Morgantown, Mooresville, Eminence (all Morgan county teams), Bedford, Connersville, Richmond, Franklin, Spencer, Franklin college, Butler college, Frankfort high school and last the Martinsville team.

There were cheers enough for all. The demonstration could be heard for half a mile away when the Martinsville team at last walked upon the floor. Second only to that given the home-boys was the outburst of enthusiasm when Frankfort appeared.

There was another big demonstration on the appearance of Connersville, who nearly eliminated Martinsville in one of the hardest fought battles of the whole tourney last Saturday morning.

"Whitie" Keasler, of Richmond, winner of the Ginn prize, received an ovation, as did Harry Bowie, former star of the Crawfordsville team who helped with the final training of the Martinsville team.

Short speeches were given by coaches of four title holding teams—Mr. Walter Meenwell, coach of the Wisconsin five which was tied for the Big Ten championship; coach Pat Pace, of Butler, winner of the National A. A. U. basketball title; Coach Griz Wagner, of Franklin college, holders of the state title; and coach Curtis, of Martinsville High school.

MOSCOW WINS ANOTHER ONE

Trounces Waldron Team 40 to 19 For Twenty-Second Victory

The Moscow Independent basketball team defeated the Waldron team Thursday night by the score of 40 to 19. It was the 22nd victory of the season for Moscow. The line-up and summary:

Moscow 40 Waldron 19
P. Gosnell F Aurine
Reed F Marshall
N. Gosnell C Kolkmier
Tillison G Ensminger
C. Gosnell G Wagoner

Field goals, P. Gosnell 7; Reed 5; No. Gosnell 5; C. Gosnell 2; Aurine 2; Marshall 2; Kolkmier 4; Ensminger. Foul goals P. Gosnell, Reed, Ensminger.

W. F. Fox, sports-writer of the Indianapolis News and Robert G. Tucker, of the Indianapolis Star, made short speeches, and James Ashmore, athletic director at DePauw University, was called on for a talk.

After the celebration a program of vaudeville stunts was provided. The celebration was in charge of Allen Moore, of the Martinsville business men's association.

The celebration in which the victors and vanquished joined in merrymaking after the strenuous day of the tourneys were over was the first of its kind in the state.

"Loyal Lives," Princess

Constant study is demanded of railway mail clerks in order that they keep thoroughly conversant with the routing of mail. So William Collier of Terrence O'Brien, in "Loyal Lives," which will be shown at the Princess theatre today.

In this part Collier was called upon to act as a railway mail clerk and was put to work in a railway mail coach, along with experienced railway mail clerks who were borrowed from the post office to insure correct portrayal of the scene.

"Did you know that railway post clerks have to keep studying all the time to hold their jobs?" was Collier's query when he finished his work in the coach scene. "Neither did I. But they do. Every week or so they get a bulletin almost blanket size giving a complete list of the changes in post office stations and changes in train routes. They must learn every one of these and know them. Every month they get an examination, and if they fail to pass with a good grade, they are discharged."

on the bench of the United States district court in Indiana, the Indiana Bar association unanimously endorsed an attorney for the place. It was not Albert Anderson, who was then an obscure attorney at Crawfordsville, who had served one term as prosecutor.

Senator Beveridge had confidence in Mr. Anderson's ability, and besides the then Indiana senator regarded him as his friend and wanted in the face of the action of the Indiana Bar association, insisted on the appointment of Albert Anderson, and his recommendation of the young attorney has been justified many times over, because Judge Anderson has won a national reputation as a fearless judge, who enforces the law without favor and with dispatch.

Among the men mentioned for the appointment, in case there is a vacancy in the U. S. district court in this state, are the following:

Judge William A. Bond, of the Wayne circuit court, Richmond; Judge Julius C. Travis, Laporte, of the Indiana supreme court, who also wishes the appointment for judge of the circuit court of appeals; George Hester, New Albany; James A. Piety, Terre Haute, former judge of the Vigo circuit court; Raymond S. Springer, Connersville, former judge of the Fayette circuit court and former state commander of the American Legion; Judge Fred C. Florida Lady Was in a Miserable Condition, But Says She Found Cardui Helpful, and Got Well.

Altha, Fla.—In explaining how she found Cardui so helpful during change of life, Mrs. Ella M. Bailey, of Route 2, this place, said:

"I became so weakened it was an effort for me to get around. I knew what was the matter, but I felt like I couldn't give up."

"I just dragged, and I certainly was nervous. I was so restless I could not sit down long—yet so weak I couldn't get about. It is a most miserable and such a helpless feeling."

"I would get depressed and out of heart. I began to feel, after awhile, there was no use to try to get well. This is all wrong, for it makes a person worse."

"I had heard of Cardui, and thought it might strengthen me. A neighbor had used it with good results."

"I took one bottle (of Cardui), then I saw I wasn't so nervous, so I kept it up. Gradually the nervousness left me. I began to eat and sleep better. Was soon well, and all right. Cardui did wonders for me, and I certainly do recommend it."

Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others.

WALDRON MINISTER IS IN JAIL AGAIN

Bondsman Surrender Him to Sheriff and He is Unable to Find Others Who Will Aid Him

ACCUSED OF BURNING CHURCH

Shelbyville, Ind., March 22—The Rev. Ulysses S. Johnson, pastor of the Waldron Baptist church, languished in jail here today following his surrender to the custody of the sheriff of Shelby county Friday by his bondsmen, who gave no reason for their action in asking to be released from the minister's bond.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson was permitted to go to Waldron Friday afternoon to find other bondsmen, but being unsuccessful, he surrendered to the sheriff in the evening and spent the night in jail.

The four bondsmen whose action today created somewhat of a sensation in the case are Dr. Daniel F. Randolph, J. O. Brison, George B. Haymond and William Acre. These men have been staunch supporters of the Rev. Mr. Johnson and were active in his defense at the trial here in February when the minister was placed on trial the first time on the charge of arson, the jury failing to reach an agreement. The second trial of the Rev. Mr. Johnson is set for April 2 in the Shelby circuit court.

illegal practices by former officials of the Dollings company.

McBride says that, although every effort is being made to place the subsidiaries of the Dollings company on a substantial basis, there seems little prospect of the investors recovering their money.

John A. Bushnell of Columbus, Ohio, who has been active in the United Protective Committees of Dollings stockholders, disagrees with the view that Dollings stockholders will lose everything, according to a statement received here today from him.

John A. Bushnell, Columbus, Ohio, active in the United Protective Committees of Dollings stockholders, issued a statement today scoring the opponents of the United Stockholders Organization for alleged piratical motives.

"The Dollings receiverships," said

Mr. Bushnell, "involve properties, assets valued at some fifty millions of dollars. These assets offer a rich prize for the plunderers, vultures and other members of the wrecking crew interested in the tearing down, liquidation and dissolution of the Dollings Companies. These properties rightfully belong to the stockholders with whose money they were secured; and it is necessary for these stockholders to organize and co-operate as a unit in order to protect their properties."

"The dissolution of these concerns means the forced sales of such assets, under the hammer. It means the sales of valuable properties at bargain counter prices—perhaps at a few cents on the dollar of their real values,—leaving little or nothing for preferred stockholders, after current debts are paid. In the face of these conditions it is certainly the same and obviously business-like procedure for the real owners,—the stockholders—to organize themselves for their own protection, with the purpose of holding these companies intact and rebuilding them on a basis which offers the chance of realizing substantial values for their investments."

"We hear the Teapot Dome scandal on every side," he continued. "In my opinion, a conspiracy is going to be uncovered in connection with the Dollings wreck that will make these stockholders boil with personal indignation, should it be allowed to succeed. I firmly believe that this conspiracy will involve certain well known politicians, officials and financial figures in both Ohio and Indiana."

"We always find," Bushnell added, "that those individuals who are active in opposing the organization and operation of the United Protective Committees, are doing so with a motive. That motive is usually not hard to determine. The stockholders' organization is a big obstacle to plunderers. Too many men of respectable appearances, are only pirates at heart."

Mr. Bushnell refused to discuss the identity of the alleged spoilers. "If you want advance information along that line," Bushnell remarked, "watch the individuals fighting this Stockholders' Organization."

Carrie Dayidge, formerly of Birmingham, in memory of the late Miss Florence Simms, "mother of the Y. W. here". Miss Simms was known throughout America and Europe for her devoted interest in work for the welfare of the Y. W. C. A.

The new building is reported to be one of the finest of its kind in the country, and the honoring by the sponsors, of the former Rushville girl, who was so prominently identified with the early activities of the association, is a tribute that will be remembered gratefully by the friends of Miss Simms.

The completion of the building is a realization of a plan fostered and aided by Miss Simms, who before her death, started the movement which resulted in the edifice, now standing as a memorial to her.

They have left for study this year "A Collection of Short Stories" by Pittinger.

Naomi Nash, Mildred Billings, sophomores, Adrian Eckart, Mildred McMillin, freshmen, and Ruth Billings, Junior, will represent the school in the county Latin contest Saturday at Rushville. They have all been reviewing extensively and the Cicero class has finished the four books of Cicero.

ORATORY

Naomi Nash, who was selected by three judges to represent our school in the oratorical contest will go to that contest next Friday night at the Graham Annex in Rushville. She will be one of four county competitors and her subject is "The Constitution."

HOMER SCHOOL

Minstrel show is again in the air. We will give a Minstrel at the Homer school building on Friday evening, April 4, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, adults 25 cents; children 15 cents. The three plays "Wanted a Valet", "Renting of the Pickaninies" and "Coonville Ristoer Club", will be repeated. We have some new plays, "Dat Sunday Dinah", "Axin' Her Father", and "Coonereels Courtship". We have several new musical numbers, "Our Latch String Hangs Outside", "Heah Dear Darkies Sing", "Meeting of de Hen Roost Club", "All I Want is a Cornish Lot in Heben", "De Back Slidin' Brudder", "We's Got De Mumps", "Old Time Songs", "Festival Dis Evenin'", "Humpback Mule", "Shanghai Rooster", "Axin' Her Father" is a play of the adventures of a bashful suitor to P'elly Ann Peppercorn. Gustus Tyler, the suitor has to ask Pa Peppercorn, who is very deaf, if he can't marry his "darter". Don't you feel sorry for him?

"Dat Sunday Dinah," explains the religions of Dinah and Abe Lincoln Jones and the effect they had upon their two children, Sally and Gawge Washinton. Sally Brimston has "a hard row to hoe" when she determines to make Johnny Overalls propose in "Coonereels Courtship." Johnny is another bashful lover. You know "all the world loves a lover." You can't afford to miss this show. We practiced the three plays Friday afternoon.

Homer high school welcomed a new student Monday, Miss Hazel

Cameron. Miss Cameron formerly attended Webb school, Volna Clingman visited school Monday. Practiced "Dat Sunday Dinah" this morning. Minstrel singers practice tonight. Freshmen had a test in Algebra Monday.

The Parent-Teachers held their monthly meeting Tuesday night with a good attendance. Supt. B. D. Farthing gave a splendid talk on "Junior High Schools". A short program was given by the lower rooms.

We practiced all afternoon Wednesday on plays and songs.

Mr. Arnd gave us a talk on "Etiquette", Thursday afternoon.

CENTER SCHOOL

The class in agriculture, which has been studying corn, popped some pop corn Thursday, and treated the school.

The Geometry class had a test Tuesday.

The English classes of the Third and Fourth years have taken up the study of "Macbeth". "Ivanhoe" is being studied by the English class of the first year.

The class in American problems has just finished the study of "Crimes"

Posters for the Senior play are being made by the drawing classes.

The Seniors have started practicing their play, "In Plum Valley", which will be given at the Mays Opera House, April 4.

Mrs. J. E. Reddick visited school Friday afternoon.

Ruth and George Truitt have returned to school after having the measles.

The boys are making plans to enter the track meet to be held at Rushville, April 19.

MAJORITY OF GRAVEL AND STONE ROADS ARE IN GOOD CONDITION

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22—The road construction season is open on Indiana state highways and while actual pavement laying will likely not start for a few days, contractors are now engaged in preliminary work necessitating blocking off some sections and the establishment of new detours, some of which will be in force many weeks because of the major size contracts.

In the highway commission's traffic bulletin showing condition of state roads for the week of March 23-29, John D. Williams, director, today called attention that Indianapolis and Shelbyville traffic is using the Boggstown road.

Leaving Shelbyville traffic should take the Boggstown road by turning west at the north end of Harrison street bridge. Proceed via Red Mills and enter Indianapolis in Shelby street. More than 60 signs plainly mark this route which will be in use the greater part of the spring and early summer to permit paving No. 6 between New Bethel and Shelbyville.

Field reports show some gravel and stone roads soft in places, but the surface of the majority of mileage of this type in the system is in good condition, Williams says.

No. 1—Open from Indianapolis to a mile south of Westfield. There follow marked detour to east and north to intersection of Sheridan-Noblesville road. Detour is soft through traffic north and northwest should leave No. 1 a mile this side Westfield and take No. 33 west to No. 15, thence on 15 to 29 and back east to No. 1. Traffic northeast out of Indianapolis should not use No. 1 but take the Allisonville road to Noblesville, thence on 33 to 37. Detour between Underwood and Vienna impassable in wet weather. At such times detour via Fredericksburg, Salem, Brownstown and Seymour.

No. 3—One-way traffic only over bridge at Putnamville. Narrow grade at Glenn 3 miles east of Terre Haute.

No. 4—If thawing road is impassable between Sullivan and Linton. New stone east of Seymour. Detour and avoid earth road east of Dugger. Soft between Bedford and Medora, and Hayden and North Vernon in wet weather.

No. 5—Detour via Mitchell and Paoli on 41 and 22 around construction between Logansport and West Baden. Soft both directions near Wheatland and just east of Washington.

No. 6—Closed between New Bethel and Shelbyville account construction. Through traffic should take Boggstown road between Indianapolis and Shelbyville, leaving Indianapolis on Shelby street. This route marked. North bound traffic from Indianapolis use No. 1 to Westfield, thence west on 33 to Lebanon to avoid construction on No. 3 in Marion county. Soft from Jolietville to No. 15.

No. 9—Suitable only for light traffic between Clay City and Brazil. Construction at 4 miles south of Brazil. East detour only fair. Construction between Jasonville and Clay City.

No. 10—Most of the soft spots have dried out excepting south of Farmersburg. Closed for grading and culvert construction between Ft. Branch and Princeton; detour marked. Surface poor north of Patoka and Shelbyville. North bound traffic from Evansville take old state road to new pavement on Princeton. Run-arounds at two bridges five miles south of Attica detour a mile east, thence a mile north, then west back to No. 10. Detour bad. Detour east at 6 miles north at Attica account bridge construction.

No. 12—Soft near Gosport and between Martinsville and Centerton. Narrow fill south of Spencer incomplete and hazardous.

No. 13—Construction for 10-miles south of Garrett and for 8 miles south Michigan line. Detour via Fremont. Drive carefully over new grade north of Newcastle. Soft between Montpelier and Flat.

No. 15—Leave Indianapolis on No. 1 near Westfield, thence on 33 west to junction of 15. Closed at north edge of Laporte account construction.

No. 16—Construction between Booneville, Gentryville and Lincoln City. Heavy grading between St. Meinrad and Leavenworth.

No. 18—Earth road between Gentryville and Dale.

No. 21—Roadside detour at Randolph-Jay county line suited for light traffic only. Trucks detour west. Grading north of Richmond. Soft places between Winchester and Deerfield.

No. 22—Use No. 12 Indianapolis to Martinsville as 22 will be closed all summer for construction. Soft for 2 miles south of Martinsville. Heavy grading north of Bloomington and south of Paoli.

No. 24—Heavy grading between Palmyra and Salem. Detour via Fredericksburg in wet weather.

No. 25—Traffic from Michigan City to South Bend go either on 15 via Laporte and on 42, or by New Buffalo and Galesburg, Michigan, to avoid 2 miles of construction west of Rolling Prairie. WEAK, RUN DOWN AFTER SICKNESS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Mrs. Dube Well and Strong

E. Hartford, Conn.—"After a severe sickness I was so weak that I could not do my housework, so my mother told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The first bottle helped me so much that I took six more bottles and felt fine. I have just given birth to a nice baby girl and am feeling strong and well. So different from the way I felt before. I am taking the Vegetable Compound right along while nursing. The baby seems to be in good health, and my friends say they see a big change for the better in me."—Mrs. EUGENE DUBE, 59 Woodbridge Street, East Hartford, Connecticut.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine to bring back health and strength. Many mothers have found this true, as did Mrs. Dube. Ask some of your neighbors and friends, for there are women everywhere who know by experience the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts, for a free copy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women."

GEN. ALLEN REPLACED
AS OLYMPIC LEADER

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 22—Unsettled conditions in New York, which several times threatened the life of the boxing game, have made it impractical for Tex Rickard to say too much about his plans for the coming summer.

Rickard has practically decided upon his program. He has the matches and the dates in mind and all he has to do is to remain silent until the time comes to talk.

The first big bout of the outdoor season will bring Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons together again in a return bout. Kearns has been showing unusual antipathy toward suggestions for this bout and Eddie Kane, Gibbons' manager, has been yelling that Dempsey didn't want the match.

There were reasons for Kearns, to be sure, on the proposition, because it would not do to have the team all let out early in the winter, when it would have to be all heated up again before summer had hardly started.

Dempsey will fight anyone, if he gets the money he wants, and Tex Rickard will meet his financial demands when Rickard sees money in it himself. There would be money for a promoter in another Dempsey-Gibbons fight, because Gibbons doesn't want the fight for fighting, and Dempsey will draw a house any time or any place he fights.

Rickard is not making any plans to give Georges Carpentier some work, despite reports from Paris to the contrary. Paris newspapers a few days ago carried a story that Carpentier had completed negotiations for three fights under Rickard's promotion and that he was sailing in a short time. Rickard said he didn't even know that Georges was still alive and that he hadn't had any negotiations with him for anything.

Dempsey, it was reported some time ago, might go to England this summer and take another smack at Carpentier in a bout to be staged in the Wembley stadium. It was suggested that the bout might draw enough to pay the two young financiers if it could be staged during the British empire exposition.

Charles B. Cochrane, prominent London theatrical promoter and an occasional fighter at boxing, said, recently when he was in New York, that he could see no opportunities in a big fight.

"I'm going to give them something for a couple of dollars," he said. "I'm going to get Tex Austin to pull off one of your western rodeos and stampedes."

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no fuss in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, jars and tubs.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

New York—"As long as Dempsey can fight, I don't believe he'll try to be a promoter," Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, said today. Kearns had no confirmation of reports that Dempsey has agreed to back Floyd E. Fitzsimmons in the promotion of the proposed Gibbons-Carpentier fight.

New York—Sixteen dated have been closed for the exhibition tour that Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight champion, is to make this summer, according to Billy McCarney, his New York business agent. Firpo is scheduled to start May sixth and close around the last week of June. He will visit Baltimore, Marietta, Covington, Louisville, Memphis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Columbus, Philadelphia, and several Canadian cities. Fred Fulton, Cliff Krauer, George Godfrey and Jack McAniff are some of the opponents that have been selected for him.

Five Thousand People Gather to Pay Tribute to Championship Basketball Team

Martinsville, Ind., March 22—Martinsville last night honored her championship high school basketball team with a celebration the like of which has never been seen in the history of the sport in Indiana.

Eleven high school teams and two college teams, a dozen coaches and sport writers were present to join the Martinsville citizens and high school students in honoring the five men who walked off with the title a week ago.

The various teams were guests of the Home Lawn Mineral Springs Hotel at a banquet immediately after they arrived in Martinsville yesterday evening.

Later they were taken to the Elks' club for an informal get-together and then to the new $75,000 high school gymnasium where 5,000 citizens were gathered for the celebration.

One goal of the gym was decorated with the red and white of Martinsville High school and the other in the colors of the Frankfort high school, runners up for the title.

The music of a band was completely drowned out by the shouts of the crowd as each team entered. Although Martinsville had been celebrating day and night for a week, there was plenty of pep left for the final windup.

Each team marched across the gym floor to a section of reserved seats while the spectators shouted and stamped their feet in welcome.

The teams marched in in the following order: Paragon, Monrovia, Morgantown, Mooresville, Eminence (all Morgan county teams), Bedford, Connersville, Richmond, Franklin, Spencer, Franklin college, Butler college, Frankfort high school and last the Martinsville team.

There were cheers enough for all. The demonstration could be heard for half a mile away when the Martinsville team at last walked upon the floor. Second only to that given the home-boys was the outburst of enthusiasm when Frankfort appeared.

There was another big demonstration on the appearance of Connersville, who nearly eliminated Martinsville in one of the hardest fought battles of the whole tourney last Saturday morning.

"White" Keasler, of Richmond, winner of the Gimball prize, received an ovation, as did Harry Bowie, former star of the Crawfordsville team who helped with the final training of the Martinsville team.

Short speeches were given by coaches of four title holding teams—Mr. Walter Meanwell, coach of the Wisconsin five which was tied for the Big Ten championship; coach Pat Page, of Butler, winner of the National A. A. U. basketball title; Coach Griz Wagner, of Franklin college; holders of the state title; and coach Curtis, of Martinsville High school.

Trounces Waldron Team 40 to 19
For Twenty-Second Victory

The Moscow Independent basketball team defeated the Waldron team Thursday night by the score of 40 to 19. It was the 22nd victory of the season for Moscow. The line-up and summary:

Moscow 40	Waldron 19
P. Gosnell	F. Aurine
Reed	Marshall
N. Gosnell	C. Kolkunier
Tillison	G. Ensminger
C. Gosnell	G. Wagoner

Field goals, P. Gosnell 7; Reed 5; No. Gosnell 5; C. Gosnell 2; Aurine 2; Marshall 2; Kolkunier 4; Ensminger. Foul goals P. Gosnell, Reed, Ensminger.

W. F. Fox, sports-writer of the Indianapolis News and Robert G. Tucker, of the Indianapolis Star, made short speeches, and James Ashmore, athletic director at De Pauw University, was called on for a talk.

After the celebration a program of vaudeville stunts was provided. The celebration was in charge of Allen Moore, of the Martinsville business men's association.

The celebration in which the victors and vanquished joined in merry-making after the strenuous day of the tourneys were over was the first of its kind in the state.

"Loyal Lives," Princess

Constant study is demanded of railway mail clerks in order that they keep thoroughly conversant with the routing of mail. So William Collier of Terrence O'Brien, in "Loyal Lives," which will be shown at the Princess theatre today.

In this part Collier was called upon to act as a railway mail clerk and was put to work in a railway mail coach, along with experienced railway mail clerks who were borrowed from the post office to insure correct portrayal of the scene.

"Did you know that railway post clerks have to keep studying all the time to hold their jobs?" was Collier's query when he finished his work in the coach scene. "Neither did I. But they do. Every week or so they get a bulletin almost blanket size giving a complete list of the changes in post office stations and changes in train routes. They must learn every one of these and know them. Every month they get an examination, and if they fail to pass with a good grade, they are discharged."

on the bench of the United States district court in Indiana, the Indiana Bar association unanimously endorsed an attorney for the place. It was not Albert Anderson, who was then an obscure attorney at Crawfordsville, who had served one term as prosecutor.

Senator Beveridge had confidence in Mr. Anderson's ability, and besides the then Indiana senator regarded him as his friend and wanted in the fate of the action of the Indiana Bar association, who had served one term as prosecutor.

Among the men mentioned for the appointment, in case there is a vacancy in the U. S. district court in this state, are the following:

Judge William A. Bond, of the Wayne circuit court, Richmond; Judge Julius C. Travis, Laporte, of the Indiana supreme court, who also wishes the appointment for judge of the circuit court of appeals; George Heister, New Albany; James A. Piety, Terre Haute, former judge of the Vigo circuit court; Raymond S. Springer, Connersville, former judge of the Fayette circuit court and former state commander of the American Legion; Judge Fred C. Ganse, Newcastle, of the Indiana supreme court (McCray appointee); George Barnard, McCray appointee to the public service commission and now one of McCray's attorneys; Mahlon E. A detailed black and white line drawing of a classical building facade. The structure features a prominent portico with a series of columns supporting a pediment. The drawing uses hatching and cross-hatching for shading, giving it a three-dimensional appearance. The building has a symmetrical design with a central entrance and side wings. The style is reminiscent of classical architectural illustrations.
